

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use and am now free from pain and able to do all my housework."—Mrs. B. B. ZIELINSKA, 202 Weiss Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Portland, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not be on my feet at all. I was all run down and so weak I could not do my housework, was nervous and could not lie down at night. I took treatments from a physician but they did not help me. My Aunt recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and now I am strong and well again and do my own work and I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound the credit."—Mrs. JOSEPHINE KIMBLE, 935 West Race Street, Portland, Ind.

SEAT SALE

For "Intolerance" Indicates Good House for Entertainment.

So extraordinary was the interest yesterday in the seat sale for "Intolerance" that the manager of the Tabernacle now wishes he could have booked the famous spectacle for a longer engagement than next Monday, Feb. 18th. The eager manner in which choice locations were snapped up indicates that local playgoers are fully aware of the opportunity "Intolerance" offers in the way of unusual entertainment.

This latest Griffith art-work, like its predecessor, "The Birth of a Nation," has the reputation of playing to crowded houses everywhere, and it is the rule rather than the exception that the demand for seats far exceeds the supply. As it is impossible for the management to book a return date of this mammoth production this season it behooves everybody who wants to attend one of the forthcoming presentations to secure their seats without delay.

In every way the production to be seen here will duplicate the one that ran for six months at the Liberty Theatre, New York, including a symphony orchestra and chorus of voices.

Daily Thought.

BOY AND NEGRO WAIVE HEARING

Heber Hicks and James Logan Held Without Bond For Murder of Widow.

Henderson, Ky., Feb. 15.—Heber Hicks, age 19, self confessed schemer for the murder of Mrs. Joy Sparks, a young widow of Clay, Ky., whose mutilated body was found buried behind a livery stable operated by Hicks' father, and James Logan, colored, who committed the actual crime, according to young Hicks' confession, waived the examining trial or preliminary hearing.

They will be held in jail here until the April term of the Webster county circuit court at Dixon, Ky. Both are held without bond.

Jacob Hicks, father of the boy, and whose alleged intimacy with the young widow caused the plan to slay her, according to the son's story, was released from jail today. Willie Casey, colored, who was held in connection with the case, also was released.

To Discuss War Topics

(By International News Service.)

Hartford, Conn., Feb. 15.—Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, will discuss "The Meaning of America" and Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the Rockefeller Foundation, will also be a speaker at the general meeting of the Connecticut State Teacher's Association and other educational organizations of the State being held here to-day and tomorrow. Wartime subjects also are to be discussed.

Among the organizations participating are the Headmasters of Secondary Schools, the Superintendents' Association, the Connecticut Schoolmasters' Club, the Connecticut Congress of Mothers, the Connecticut Woman's Council of Education, Connecticut State Teachers' League, Connecticut Home Economics Association, Connecticut Arts Association and the Connecticut School of Classical and High School Teachers.
